THE SOCIETY FOR APPLIED ANTHROPOLOGY

The Society for Applied Anthropology has as its primary object "the promotion of scientific investigation of the principles controlling the relations of human beings to one another, and the encouragement of the wide application of these principles to practical problem."

Qualifications for Membership

Fellows shall be limited to those who have academic accreditation in the field of anthropology or in related fields as evidenced by the possession of a Ph.D. degree, or to those who have demonstrated competence in the application of social science in Euro-American society or in other societies. They shall have all the privileges and obligations of full membership in the Society, including the right to vote on all issues affecting the composition, purposes, and commitments of the Society. Candidates for membership as Fellows must be proposed in writing by a member of the Society and acted upon by the Executive Committee. Annual dues are $10.00.

Regular membership is open to anyone interested in applied anthropology. Regular members have all the privileges of membership except the right to vote and hold office. Annual dues are $8.00.

Institution membership dues are $10.00 annually.

Joint husband-wife memberships are available for Fellows and Regular Members at $2.00 more than the regular fee and will provide one copy of publications, but full rights for both in case of Fellows.

Student membership is open to any student registered in a college or university. The applicant must give the name of the institution and of one of his professors. Annual dues are $6.00.

Publications

Human Organization, a quarterly journal, is published by the Society. Subscription is by membership in the Society. Single copies are available at $2.50 each.
